Notices

13.1 Notice

Whenever under the provisions of the By-laws of the Corporation notice is required to be given, unless otherwise provided, such notice shall be given in writing and may be delivered by prepaid mail, by facsimile transmission or by electronic mail addressed to the Director, officer, member of a committee or auditor at the postal address, the facsimile number or electronic mail address, as the case may be, as the same appears on the books of the Corporation.

If delivered by hand or courier, a notice shall be conclusively deemed to have been received at the time of delivery, or if delivered by facsimile transmission or electronic mail, it shall be conclusively deemed to be received on the next business day after transmission.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions with respect to mailing, in the event that it may be reasonably anticipated that, due to any strike, lock out or similar event involving an interruption in postal service, any notice will not be received by the addressee by no later than the third (3rd) business day following the mailing thereof, then the mailing of any such notice as aforesaid shall not be an effective means of sending the same but rather any notice must then be sent by an alternative method which it may reasonably be anticipated will cause the notice to be received reasonably expeditiously by the addressee.

Any person entitled to receive any such notice may waive such notice either before or after the meeting to which such notice refers.

13.2 Computation of Time

Any Director, officer, member of a committee or the auditor of the Corporation may waive any notice required to be given to him or her under any provision of the Municipal Act or the Health Protection and Promotion Act, or the By-laws of the Corporation, and such waiver, whether given before or after the meeting or other event of which notice is required to be given, shall cure any default in giving such notice. Attendance and participation at a meeting constitutes waiver of notice unless the sole purpose of attendance is to dispute the validity of the notice of meeting.

ARTICLE 14

Amendment of By-laws

14.1 Amendment

Any amendment to the By-laws shall only be valid if the Board resolution approving such amendment is confirmed by a second Special Resolution at a subsequent Board meeting held no sooner than forty-eight (48) hours following the date the amendment is first approved.

All officers and persons acting under the authority of any By-law so repealed shall continue to act as if appointed under the provisions of this By-law and all resolutions of the Board with continuing effect passed under any repealed By-law shall continue good and valid except to the extent inconsistent with this By-law and until amended or repealed.
